

Your Travelher Story

Thanks for your interest in sharing a story with us! We look forward to reading it and showing it to other fellow Travelhers around the world.

Please share a story about travelling that has moved you in some way. It could be about one specific moment, one specific trip, your overall experience, a person you met, an activity you did... the possibilities are endless. It could be a happy memory, annoying, hilarious, frustrating, cringeworthy... There really are no rules except that it's a memory that means something to you. It doesn't need to be a masterpiece - we'll tweak it for grammar and style. What we're most interested in is your story.

Please include the below for your submission and we will be happy to publish your unique tale. This can be sent to us via the Travelher Story Submission page.

- Name:
- Personal bio (Roughly 25 words):
- Link to your website, charity or social profile (if you'd like to include it):
- Story (400+ words)
- Please include Image as a separate file (At least 1200px, facing away from the camera. Please note this does not have to be from your specific trip, just a photo of you, looking out to the world. You can see examples of these on the website)

If you have any questions or issues, please feel free to contact us at hello@travelher.org!

Thank you for taking the time to share your story. Let's create and encourage travel addiction together!

The Travelher Team

About Travelher.org - Our mission is to celebrate and encourage travel addiction in women everywhere. We believe in the educational and empowering effects of travel and want to shout about it from the rooftops. We'd love to hear from you about your unique experiences and share it with our community of Travelhers from around the world.
